

Winter Semester 2022/2023 Online Elections for the Senate and the Faculty Councils at Goethe University

Dear Professors,
Dear Employees,
Dear Students,

this year's university elections for the Senate and the Faculty Councils will take place for the second time as Internet-based online elections.

In the period from January 23, 2023 (13:00) up until February 3, 2023 (15:00), you can elect your student representatives to the Senate and to your respective Faculty Council.

To vote electronically in the online election, all you need is your HRZ account (user name and password). You received these access data from the University Computing Center (Hochschulrechenzentrum, HRZ) when you began your employment at Goethe University. You can access the online election via the registration portal at <https://wahlen.uni-frankfurt.de> (in German). The portal will be activated at 13:00 on January 23, 2023. Once you have successfully registered with your HRZ account, you will be automatically redirected to the voting system to cast your vote. Within the election period (January 23, 2023, 13:00 h until February 3, 2023, 15:00 h), you can cast your vote online anywhere in the world, regardless of time and place.

You can find detailed voting instructions (in German) at https://www.uni-frankfurt.de/129730408/Anleitung_zur_Durchfuehrung_der_Online_Wahl.pdf.

I would also like to draw your attention to the current "UniReport Wahl-Spezial" issue of December 22, 2022 (in German), which contains all important election information (lists of candidates for Senate & Faculty Councils, election programs/list presentations of the university groups for the Senate election, explanations of the online election procedure, important election dates, and much more). The online version (in German) is available at: <https://www.unireport.info/130055212/unireport-wahl-spezial-2022.pdf>

For more information on committee elections/online elections, visit the Goethe University Elections Office website (in German) at https://www.uni-frankfurt.de/122265281/Senats_und_FbRwahlen_2022_2023.

We urge you to use this opportunity for democratic participation to shape Goethe University and exercise your right to vote! Your vote strengthens the candidates in the respective committees who represent your interests and concerns!
